The Canberra Medical Society presents:

Sunday Dreaming

Supported by The John Curtin Medical Research Foundation, ANU

An afternoon of Indigenous art, with music, food & wine

Sunday 3 May

11am - 3pm

Government House,
Dunrossil Drive, Yarralumla

- A unique opportunity to purchase museum-quality Indigenous artworks through direct sale, live and silent auction
- Hear Wally Caruana, expert in Indigenous art, introduce each piece
- Picnic lunches available from some of Canberra’s favourite restaurants
  - Local and regional wines

Proceeds support the National Centre for Indigenous Genomics

Bringing together the world’s oldest living culture and its newest science

For more information: ncig.anu.edu.au

©Timothy Cook Kulama 2012

The use of the grounds of Government House is by kind permission of The Governor-General, His Excellency General the Honourable Sir Peter Cosgrove AK MC (Retd). Please note that the house will not be open. Limited EFTPOS facilities available.